European Fund for the Return of Third Country Nationals

Call for Applications

The Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Service invites applications for funding under the European Fund for the Return of Third Country Nationals, as part of the 'Solidarity and Management of Migration Flows' General Programme from the European Commission.

Applications for projects focusing on the voluntary return of third country nationals, are invited. Applicants should have demonstrable experience and expertise in working with third country nationals and must be in a position to carry out the project in Ireland.

Details of the types of actions that are eligible are available in the Programme Guidelines which, along with the Application Form, are available from the Department's website (www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/Pages/The\_European\_Return\_Fund).

Information meetings for prospective applicants will take place in the Department's offices in Burgh Quay during the week 22nd - 26th November 2010. Please contact returnfund@justice.ie in advance of your preferred attendance date.

Completed applications must be sent to:

The European Return Fund
Repatriation (Arrangements) Unit
